Other important information

- The Securities and Exchange Commission ("Commission") adopted Regulation S-AM under the Fair Credit Reporting Act ("FCRA") as amended by the Fair and Accurate Credit Transactions Act of 2003 ("FACT Act") and under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, the Investment Company Act of 1940, and the Investment Advisers Act of 1940. Regulation S-AM allows a consumer, in certain limited situations, to block affiliates of covered persons (i.e., brokers, dealers, investment companies, investment advisers registered with the Commission, and transfer agents registered with the Commission) from soliciting the consumer based on eligibility information (i.e., certain financial information, such as information regarding the consumer's transactions or experiences with the covered person) received from the covered person. Unlike Regulation S-P, which implements the financial privacy provisions of the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act, Regulation S-AM does not limit a covered person's ability to share information. Instead, it limits a covered person's ability to use eligibility information received from an affiliate to solicit a consumer for marketing purposes. This notice is being provided to you in order to fulfill our requirements pursuant to Regulations S-P and S-AM.
- For California residents: In accordance with California law, we will not share information we collect about you with companies outside of our corporate family, except as permitted by law, including, for example, with your consent or to service your account. We will limit sharing among our companies to the extent required by California law. Further, the California Consumer Privacy Act ("CCPA") requires that we categorize the customer information that we collect. Personal information that we may collect could fall within the following categories: 1) Identifiers (e.g. contact information and cookies) 2) Account Information 3) Protected classification information (e.g. gender and ethnicity) 3) Internet or electronic activity 4) Geolocation 5) Audio and Video information 6) Professional or employment information 7) Biometric information 8) Inferences we draw based on this information. California residents may request to be informed of the categories of information that we have collected on them within the last twelve (12) months. We will respond with the categories of personal information, the sources of the personal information, the purpose of the collected information and the categories of third parties with whom we have shared the information. California residents can request deletion of data. We generally collect and retain only the information that we need to meet legal and regulatory requirements, maintain your accounts and serve your financial needs. As a result, we may not be able to delete information that is required to service accounts, to comply with state or federal law, to comply with securities or insurance regulations or that must be retained for critical business purposes. To be informed of the information we have collected on you or to request deletion, please contact your advisory team or you can reach us by calling 866.569.2450, by emailing compliance@larsongroup.com or writing to Larson Financial Holdings, LLC 100 N Broadway Ste 1700 Saint Louis, MO 63102.
